Our Senior Friars in Chicopee, MA & Enfield, CN are looking for extra Mass intentions. We have 8 priests that offer masses 6-7 days per week; so, they go through 48-56 intentions a week. If you would like to have a mass offered by the friars you can make arrangements at the parish office. (We will provide a Mass Card.) Once we have 20-25 intentions from St. Patrick & OLOH we will send them to Fr. Andrew Santamauro who is going to coordinate this on their end.

The Mother's Day Envelope and the Pentecost Envelope from our May Packet may be placed in the collection basket any time during the month of May.

Deacon's Corner

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord will be celebrated on Thursday, May 9. On this solemnity, the Gospel of St. Mark tells us that "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.' Then the Lord Jesus, after he spoke to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God. (Mark 16: 15-20)."

This day is celebrated 40 days after Jesus' Resurrection on Easter Sunday – the Thursday during the sixth week of Easter. However, most dioceses in the United States have moved this solemnity to the seventh Sunday of Easter.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) emphasizes the importance and meaning of the Lord's Ascension into Heaven. Christ's Ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain, as he will come again (665). As the head of the Church, Jesus precedes us into the Father's glorious kingdom so that we, the members of his Body, may live in the hope of one day being with him forever (666). Finally, Jesus Christ, having entered the sanctuary of heaven once and for all, intercedes constantly for us as the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our lives (667).

On this holy day, may we pray, "O God, grant that in accordance with your Son's promise, we may be worthy for him to live with us always on earth, and we with him in heaven" (Evening Prayer, Divine Office.).
