Catechetical Sunday – September 15

The U.S. Bishops have designated today as Catechetical Sunday to honor all those who share in the evangelizing and teaching mission of the Church. At Our Lady of Hope, St. Patrick and Mother Cabrini Parishes, we are so grateful for the dedicated ministry of these persons who have accepted the call to catechize our youth in their Faith Formation Process.

We acknowledge with gratitude: Sam Nicola,
Lyndsey McElwee, Susan Christiana, Karen McCracken, Andrew Leeman, Sarah Keefer, Mary Gillam, Rose Witt and Melissa Myers.
Thank you for your continued commitment to share and educate the youth in our parishes.

Deacon's Corner

The Memorial of Saints Cornelius, Pope, and Cyprian, Bishop and Martyr, will be celebrated on Monday, September 16. Cornelius of Rome and Cyprian of North Africa are third century saints who were martyred for their love of Jesus Christ and His Church. They are commemorated together on this feast day because they were friends and allies. We hear both their names prayed in Eucharistic Prayer I during Mass. In 251 A.D., Cornelius was chosen as Pope over the objection of Novatian, who claimed the papacy for himself and was the first antipope. St. Cyprian traveled to Rome to be part of a synod of bishops which upheld Cornelius' authority as Pope and excommunicated Novatian and his followers. The Roman emperor Gallus arrested Pope Cornelius and placed him in prison where he died of physical hardships. St. Cornelius is the patron saint invoked against earaches, epilepsy and fevers.

St. Cyprian was born in North Africa in 200 A.D. He was an accomplished lawyer and orator. He converted to Christianity and was ordained a priest. He battled many heresies and promoted Church unity. Cyprian was arrested under the persecution of the emperor Valerian, condemned to death, and beheaded on September 14, 258. He was the first African bishop to suffer martyrdom and is the patron saint of North Africa and Algeria.

On this feast day, we pray, "May the prayers and faith of Saints Cornelius and Cyprian give us courage to work for the unity of God's Church."

New Altar Candles

New oil-powered, refillable altar and processional candles have been purchased. The total cost was $676.20. If you would like to contribute or make a memorial donation toward these candles please call the Parish Office. There will be a significant savings to our parish by not having to purchase wax candles. Thank you for your continued generosity.
